
CPA4Less Why Pay More 4 Less?

Last Updated Thursday, 12 February 2009

CPA4Less specializes in small business financial services. We use technology to keep you in your office doing what you do best. Our state-of-the-art secure upload file lockers make it simple and easy to get your files and documents to us. Whether it be for your quarterly taxes, tax returns, or Quickbooks file setup, we can handle all your needs remotely without tons of paper!

We can work with your firm LARGE or small, home-based or office-based, anywhere you are! Whether you are in Florida, California, Tennessee, Texas, New York or outside the US we can handle all of your needs!

Ed Bickford, CPA , founder of CPA4Less.com, offers professional services in the preparation of tax returns, accounting, accounting systems, bookkeeping, financial and retirement planning. Starting his practice in 1987 his clients include individuals, sole proprietors, corporations, partnerships, non-profit organizations, trusts, and estates.

Mr. Bickford received his accounting degree from Florida International University in 1982. He later studied taxation at the Graduate Business School of The American University in Washington, DC and financial planning at The College for Financial Planning.

His commitment to excellence and continuing education enables him to offer the highest quality services to his clients.